Kia ora!

I'm Helena Marie, a Tarot card reader and holistic health practitioner experienced in a range of modalities and practices in Auckland, New Zealand. I am also a public relations professional (10 years) on a mission to fuse spirituality in business-career and to help clients and customers discover spiritual empowerment.

I've always had a fascination with the Tarot, and so I began studying it, and I did a few short courses years ago including at Elestial - a readers retail store in Paraparaumu. Mostly, Tarot readers learn through personal study, and the knowledge we gain through books, the cards, the symbolism, history and through professional readings with other practitioners.

I was also told by a well known psychic, in my late 20's, Kay Helson, who resided in Ashburton, that I would one day become a reader as I had strong psychic ability. In 2012, I was asked to read at a health and wellbeing expo at the TSB Stadium in Taranaki. Our stall had queues of people lining up for the entire weekend! Customers told me I was very accurate and their feedback was a sign to keep going.

Now I have read for about 800 people, and at five business premises around NZ, and I have also learned some new skills, and modalities. My passion and motivation is to see people let go of past hurt and burdens, and learn to trust and love themselves, so they can achieve their goals, dreams, and life purpose.

Client Testimonials

"I had my first reading for 2018 with lovely Helena yesterday. She is wonderful, I found my reading very informative and accurate and did not at all feel rushed for time during my reading. In the past I have been to many for readings, Helena is truly gifted. If in future I need guidance she will be the first I contact. Thank you"

Meenal Reedy - 8 January 2018

"Helena Marie Tarot was so awesome and insightful. Thanks again Helena. If you need clarity around a situation, I would definitely recommend."

Lainie Apiata - 30 January 2018

"Meeting Helena Marie felt more like Serendipity. The reading was extremely on point and enlightening and not generic at all.

Helena Marie was able to pick up that I had resigned from work that week, and gave me better clarity and reassurance that I was on to my next journey in life. Helena Marie also picked up on a health issue with a family member, scheduled for a hospital visit the next day and was able to provide objective guidance. Helena Marie truly has a gift and provides a reading in such a respectful and articulate way."
